

RV PERMIT PROGRAM

Attention Santa Fe Springs residents and recreational vehicle owners.

In order to effectively address Citywide RV parking concerns, the City Council established a RV Parking Permit Program to authorize and regulate RV parking on City streets by temporary permit. The new RV parking restriction is effective on March 28, 2025, with a one-month educational and warning period prior to enforcement, that starts on April 28, 2025. RV Permits can be obtained by visiting the Police Services Center located at 11576 Telegraph Rd.

To apply for an RV permit, provide the following:

Resident Information:

- Name, residential address, and phone number of the applicant or host resident.
- Proof of residency (e.g., driver's license, ID card, property tax bill, or utility bill).

RV Owner Information:

- Name, address, and phone number of the RV's registered owner or renter.
- Copy of vehicle registration from the DMV (or equivalent state agency).
- If the applicant is not the owner/renter, a letter of authorization from the owner.

Vehicle Details:

- License number, year, make, and model of the RV.

For more information, please contact the Police Services
Center at (562) 409-1850.
Monday - Thursday
