A Great Place To Live, Work, and Play

YOU'RE INVITED!

WORKSHOP #3:
ZONING CODE UPDATE

Modernizing Our Development Standards

Wednesday, March 18, 2026 from 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Santa Fe Springs Library, 11700 Telegraph Rd.

You're invited to join us for the third and final community workshop for the City's Zoning Code Update before the draft proposal is released for public review. Building on the first two workshops, which introduced the project and explored the consultant's assessment of the current code and recommended high-level changes, this session will focus on refining those ideas with direct community input.

Your participation is essential: the feedback gathered at this workshop will help shape the final direction of the draft Zoning Code, ensuring it reflects local priorities, supports thoughtful growth, and addresses the needs of residents, businesses, and neighborhoods.

Come learn, ask questions, and help influence the policies that will support a vibrant and well-planned community. All community members are welcome. Light refreshments will be provided.

Future updates and additional information about the project will be available on the City's Zoning Code Update website www.santafesprings.gov/zoningcodeupdate.

For questions, please contact the Community Development Department at CommunityDevelopment@santafesprings.gov or (562) 868-0511 Ext. 7550.
